

MOHAIMINA HAQUE, ESQ.

PRINCIPAL ATTORNEY, FOUNDER

Law Office of Mohaimina Haque, PLLC
Washington, DC

Mohaimina Haque is the founder and principal attorney of the Law Office of Mohaimina Haque, PLLC. She litigates cases in the D.C. Superior Court, as well as the U.S. District Court in D.C. Furthermore, she represents clients in matters pertaining to corporate law, employment, immigration, personal injury, general business law and product liability/false advertising. Additionally, she aids immigrants in obtaining green cards and citizenship. She is the Outside General Counsel for a premier casual dining chain, Tony Roma's and its subsidiaries.

Earlier, Ms. Haque served as a paralegal specialist in the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, through which she earned the Assistant Attorney General's Award for Distinguished Work by past Assistant Attorney General Bill Baer for her role in the merger review case of U.S. Airways and American Airlines. Furthermore, she was an Honors Attorney in the Office of General Counsel at U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Ms. Haque holds a BA in social and public policy and MA in social and public policy from Georgetown University in 2010 and 2013, respectively. Her master's thesis, "The Economics of Non-Compete," is published by Georgetown and heavily relied upon by engineering and scientific professionals who are affected by restrictive non-compete covenants. During her master's studies, she served in the White House Internship Program under the Obama administration, where she worked with senior officials' domestic policy agenda. She obtained her JD from the Washington College of Law at American University, graduating cum laude in 2017. In October 2021, she was recognized by Washingtonian Magazine as one of Outstanding Women for being a successful and inspiring female professional leading the D.C. metro area workforce. Attorney-at-Law Magazine named her Attorney of the Month in August 2020.

Ms. Haque is a board member of the New England Leadership Council of the Susan Komen Foundation. Her professional affiliations include the American Bar Association and American Immigration Lawyers Association, among others.
