

Restorative Divorce Services & Pricing Overview

A Smarter Approach to Divorce & Mediation Services

At Birt Family Law, we offer structured, resolution-focused divorce services designed to keep families out of court. Every situation is different, but most clients fall between $4,000 and $10,000 depending on their situation.

- Planning Session: $400
- Mediation (per person): typically $2,000 to $6,000
- Uncontested or Structured Support: typically $4,000 to $10,000
- Higher-conflict or more complex situations: typically $10,000 to $20,000

We offer flexible payment options, including flat-fee packages, hourly support, and monthly plans through Affirm.

Every family's situation is different. The general service levels below help you understand where you may fall.

For parents who are largely in agreement:

Flat-fee or limited-scope support to finalize agreements efficiently and correctly, without unnecessary court involvement.

For parents needing structured guidance:

Flat Fee and/or hourly rates for ongoing support with clear planning, negotiation, and decision-making to move forward in a steady and organized way.

For more complex situations:

Hourly rates with expanded support for higher-conflict dynamics, financial complexity, or situations requiring more detailed legal strategy and coordination.

Every case begins with a short call to make sure we're the right fit. From there, we guide you step by step.

• Step 1: 15-Minute Call

Start with a brief call with our team to discuss your situation and determine next steps.

• Step 2: Planning Session with Erin Birt

A focused session to review your legal, financial, and parenting considerations and map out your path forward.

• Step 3: Choose Your Service Plan

Select a flat-fee or structured support option based on your needs and level of agreement.

• Step 4: Move Forward with a Clear Plan

Begin your divorce or mediation process with defined steps, support, and a clear direction.

Start with a 15-minute call to determine the right next step for your situation.
