

"Justice at Work" Radio Show Examines Race Discrimination in the Workplace

In the new episode of "Justice At Work," Partners Amanda Farahany and Kathy Harrington-Sullivan are joined by guest Todd Stanton of Stanton Law for a discussion about race discrimination and how today's nationwide conversation about racism is affecting the workplace for both employers and employees.

Todd Stanton leads Stanton Law, an employment defense firm that represents employers exclusively, and in the continued spirit of cooperation and education, plaintiff and defense came together for a great discussion about how to deal with accusations of discrimination at work, the importance of taking all claims seriously, and how to deal with people wanting to discuss racial issues with coworkers.

We invite you to listen to the program and call us if you have any questions about race discrimination in your workplace.
