

Grace Starling Joins Barrett & Farahany from 11th Circuit Court

Barrett & Farahany is pleased to announce that Grace Starling has joined the firm as an associate. Grace focuses her practice on representing individuals in employment law matters. She advocates for people facing injustice and embraces initiatives leading to positive change.

Grace also is a registered mediator with the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution. Before joining Barrett & Farahany, Grace spent a year as a Staff Attorney with the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit in Atlanta. She also was a summer associate for a boutique trial firm in Atlanta.

Grace earned her law degree, magna cum laude, at Georgia State University College of Law where she was in the top 10% of her class and received several honors. She also graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Art History from Agnes Scott College.

While in law school, Grace organized and oversaw a citizen initiative focused on supporting sexual assault/gender-based violence survivors at the state government level. Grace remains interested and engaged in working on public policy that improves her community.

Grace is looking forward to working with our clients.
