

October Newsletter

The Role of Politics in the Workplace

The social temperature in our city and country is high and flowing into the workplace, be it through discussion or attire with a political logo. Our very own Amanda Farahany, managing partner of Barrett & Farahany, and Todd Stanton, principal of Stanton Law, took on the topic in the Fulton County Daily Report.

Learn More

What You're Owed When Leaving a Job

It's been a very interesting year for the job market in Georgia, and you may find yourself considering a change in employment during the COVID-19 pandemic. In a volatile market and with the career you've worked so hard for at stake, it's critical that you understand your legal rights.

Read Now

Amanda Farahany Published in NewsWeek

Amanda Farahany took on a heated topic that is hitting the country. In her latest opinion piece, she shares her thoughts on

The Next Trump and what she predicts for the future of America.

Read Now

At Barrett & Farahany, we do things differently.

Our Atlanta employment lawyers believe in helping employees and protecting their rights, and we work in true partnership with our clients - our clients know they have been heard.

When you reach out to us, you will speak with an attorney, free of charge. Our case evaluation team is staffed entirely by knowledgeable attorneys who can provide the assistance you need to understand your rights and know what steps to take next.

Barrett & Farahany

404.487.0922

1100 Peachtree Street NE, Suite 500
Atlanta, GA 30309-4501

