An Unprecedented Holiday Party Season

Last year, nearly 76% of companies planned to hold holiday parties. This year, because of the COVID-19 pandemic, only about 23% of companies are planning a year-end celebration, and 74% of those will be virtual events, according to a survey done by Challenger, Gray & Christmas. Even with a virtual party, it's highly unlikely that there won't be any cases of sexual harassment.
