Edition
announces
The Best Lawyers in America®

Amanda Farahany

awarded
"Lawyer of the Year"
Employment Law - Individuals in Atlanta

Two attorneys at Barrett & Farahany were recognized in their respective practice areas in the 2019 edition of The Best Lawyers in America®. Best Lawyers® is the oldest and most respected peer review publication in the legal profession and its lists are compiled based on exhaustive peer-review evaluation.

Amanda A. Farahany, managing partner of the employment law firm Barrett & Farahany, received three accolades:

- Selected for highest overall honor, “Lawyer of the Year” in Atlanta, in the Best Lawyers 2019 for her specialty in Employment Law for Individuals field. This is a top accolade, as only one attorney is recognized as the “Lawyer of the Year” for each specialty and location.
- Selected by her peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2019 in the Employment Law for Individuals field.
- Selected for inclusion in the The Best Lawyers in America 2019 in the Litigation of Labor and Employment field.

V. Severin Roberts, a partner at Barrett & Farahany, was also selected by his peers in The Best Lawyers in America 2019 in the field of Litigation of Labor and Employment.

According to Best Lawyers, its methodology is based entirely on peer review and captures the consensus opinion of leading lawyers about the professional abilities of their colleagues within the same geographical and legal practice area. Since its first publishing 35 years ago, Best Lawyers has become universally regarded as the definitive guide to legal excellence.

“We appreciate that our colleagues — those against whom we litigate, and those we don’t — take note of the work we strive to successfully accomplish on behalf of our clients,” said Farahany. “It is even more rewarding that our colleagues place a value on the hard work mandated through employment law to minimize the abuses of power, discrimination and injustice that employees at all levels endure to secure the future for themselves and their families.”

Farahany exclusively represents employees, from minimum wage workers to lawyers and executives, with a strong emphasis on sexual harassment and sexual assault litigation. Farahany has received numerous other accolades, such as helping the firm attain Best Law Firm status in U.S. News & World Report, and being named as one of National Advocates Top 100 Lawyers in Employment Law, a Super Lawyer® and a Georgia Trend Legal Elite. She has also received an AV rating by the judiciary and her peers, which recognizes the highest level of professional excellence among attorneys. She also has been in the role of president or chair of multiple bar organizations, including the Atlanta Bar Labor & Employment section, the Georgia Chapter of the National Employment Law Association and multiple women’s rights groups. Known as an attorney who handles high profile and important cases, the media regularly follows her work.

Roberts is devoted to representing clients in employment law matters, with a particular focus on wage and hour litigation, including individual Fair Labor Standards Act claims and large collective actions. He also dedicates his time to representing clients in traditional employment litigation.

“I’m honored to have been recognized by my peers in this field,” said Roberts. “This work is very meaningful to me and to my clients, and I look forward to further success in litigation on their behalf.”
