

Can I lose my job due to the coronavirus in Georgia? How am I legally protected?

Barrett & Farahany Partner Kathy Harrington-Sullivan explains the rights of both employers and employees regarding job termination in Georgia during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Click here to listen in.

EMPLOYMENT LAW & COVID-19

A series by Kathy Harrington-Sullivan

Employers are Held Accountable for Filing for Workers' Unemployment Benefits

You may not have been terminated, but has your employer drastically reduced your hours due to COVID-19? Kathy Harrington-Sullivan tells the Atlanta Journal Constitution that these employers are legally required to file for unemployment benefits on behalf of their workers, and are otherwise liable to reimburse the Department of Labor.

Read the full article here.

If you have a new case or questions about how the pandemic may affect your employment, our case evaluation team is here to help answer your questions at 404-487-0922.

Barrett & Farahany

404.487.0922

1100 Peachtree Street NE, Suite 500
Atlanta, GA 30309-4501

