Courtroom Defense in Serious Criminal Cases

Our law firm's immediate intervention, including a complete case investigation, helped reach numerous successful outcomes. The clients faced the risk of long sentences as well as losing child custody and/or professional licensing. And most criminal charges were dropped or set for dismissal.

No Formal Charges After Arrest: A government employee arrested for having a sexual relationship with a minor who deceived him about her age. Our office demonstrated reasonable doubt as to the elements of statutory rape. The case was rejected for prosecution.

Hit-and-Run Case Closed: A client was involved in a hit-and-run. Our firm negotiated with the assigned detective to drop the criminal case investigation, following a civil compromise and presentation of insurance policy coverage.

Sex Case Dropped Due to Insufficient Evidence: A client was investigated for over a year following sex crime accusations. Following our own investigation, the firm advocated to the government there was a lack of sufficient evidence. Case closed the case with no formal arrest or charges.

Reduction from DUI to Reckless Driving: Our attorneys presented mitigation to the prosecutor to avoid a felony DUI conviction, which could affect our client’s medical license. We eventually reached a plea compromise to preserve our client’s ability to work.

Two Firearm Cases Dropped: A client was charged in cases involving the displaying and discharging firearms. Following extensive litigation, both the felony and misdemeanor criminal cases were dismissed on the eve of trial.

Sex Trafficking and Pandering Case: Our client qualified for Mental Health Diversion after a year of litigation, and objections from the DA's Office. The charges will be dropped upon successful completion of the program.

Domestic Violence Felony Arrest: No formal charges filed against a medical doctor following presentation of defense evidence to the prosecutor's office.

Grand Theft Arrest in Casino: No formal charges filed against a business owner following claim he took someone else bag with poker chips.

Federal Detention Hearings: The firm secured pretrial release for numerous clients facing felony charges in federal court nationally, often over the objection of the government. Offenses included stalking, possession of unlawful pornography, child abuse, and drug trafficking.

Fake ID Cases: Two college students were booked for presenting fake IDs in a sting operation. Following our firm's presentation of mitigation evidence, the prosecutor's office agreed to not file formal charges and instead set an informal counseling hearing for each client.

No Charges in Assault with Deadly Weapon Case: A veteran with PTSD was accused of hitting a man with a bat. The law firm presented defense evidence including recent treatment efforts to the prosecutor's office. Case will not be formally prosecuted after our client successfully completes an informal process through the prosecutor's office.
