

Divorce... Step by Step

Know What to Expect

Starting Out...

You Provide
Background
Information and Complete Initial
Paperwork and
We Draft An Initial
Complaint or Answer
to the Complaint

Discovery and Financial Transparency Are Next

You Upload Digital Copies of All
Financial Records and
We Compile the Records, Produce the Records and Request Similar Records
From Your Spouse

Next We Narrow the Issues

Agree or Disagree

WHAT IS IN CONTENTION

We Try to Resolve Issues That Can Be Resolved
and Determine the Best Strategy for Addressing Issues That Are In Dispute.

Do We Need A Guardian ad Litem ("GAL")?

A GAL will investigate the best interests of the children.

Do We Need A Business Valuation?

A CPA Will Give An Expert Opinion of the Value of A Business.

Do We Need Depositions?

If We Need More Information, We May Need to Take Depositions of Witnesses.

We Help You Decide

Hearing or No Hearing?

If You Need Interim Relief or Protection, You May Need a Temporary Hearing.

Mediation is Normally Next

Mediation With an Experienced and Knowledgeable Mediator Is Often Able to Resolve Some or All Issues in the Case.

Trial is A Last Resort

Trial

WHEN YOU HAVE NO
OTHER CHOICE

We Work with You Every Step of The to Help You Decide What's Best For You.
At The Cherry Law Firm, We Are Here For You.
Call Us at 770-444-3399.