

A message to our clients and friends:

Even in a crisis life must go on. At Bailey & Wyant PLLC your business is our priority, especially amidst the current uncertainties.

Our offer of support:

- We recognize we are in uncharted territory as a nation and workforce. We would like to continue to lend our support to you and your organization. At this time we are fully capable of continuing full representation of our clients' interests. While the crisis is evolving rapidly, we are adhering to the suggested guidelines and practices presented by the CDC and WHO to slow the curve and prevent the spread of this virus.

What will not change:

- We will continue to provide aggressive and effective legal representation while being mindful of our clients' individual needs, goals and economic interests.
- Our dedication to our clients' existing and future needs. At Bailey & Wyant PLLC we are equipped to offer guidance and advice to clients about how to handle various legal issues that may arise from COVID-19.
- We will continue to monitor the situation daily, taking into guidance from the CDC as well as WV State officials. We will adapt our protocols as necessary and keep you apprised of all updates and changes.

In the unforeseen event that we are forced to close our office, we will continue to provide services to our clients as needed. If you are unable to reach the office or your attorney through the main number, please contact the following individuals and they will facilitate contact with your attorney.

Charles R. Bailey 304-546-6986
John P Fuller 304-553-2093
Jason S. Hammond 304-546-1187

COVID-19 Local Resource Center

Please visit the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources at <https://dhhr.wv.gov/COVID-19/Pages/default.aspx> for the most up-to-date information