

Allocation Chart of Parental Rights and Duties

	RIGHTS AND DUTIES  (Not all powers listed)	Each parent has at all times; in the event of disagreement, event will happen	Each parent has during possession	Joint Agreement between parents required	C= After Consultation with other parent  N= After Notice to other parent	Only Father	Only Mother
1	Right to consent for the child to medical or dental care not involving an invasive procedure
2	Right to establish the primary residence of the child.	Within _____ County or contiguous counties		No Restriction or other
3	Right to consent for the child to medical, dental, and surgical treatment involving invasive procedures
4	Right to consent for the child to psychological treatment and evaluation.
5	Right to consent for the child to outpatient psychiatric treatment
6	Right to consent for the child to inpatient psychiatric and psychological evaluation and treatment
7	Right to consent for the child to outpatient psychiatric and psychological (evaluation and) treatment
8	Duty to make periodic child support payments
9	Right to represent the child in legal action and to make other decisions of substantial legal significance concerning the child
10	Right to the services and earnings of child
11	Right to make decisions concerning the child's education (as in school and tutoring decisions
12	The right to act as an agent of the child in relation to the child's estate if the child's action is required by a state, the U.S. or a foreign government						