III. INFRINGEMENT

A. Infringement of the '368 Patent

6. On Jan 17, 2012, U.S. Patent No. 8,099,368 ("the '368 patent", attached as Exhibit A) entitled "Intermediary Service and Method for Processing Financial Transaction Data with Mobile Device Confirmation" was duly and legally issued by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. Wallet owns the '368 patent by assignment.

- 7. The '368 patent relates to novel and improved methods and systems to utilize a mobile device to provide out of band communications notifying a customer of a financial transaction request.
- 8. Hotels maintains, operates, and administers online platforms, products and services that facilitate utilizing a mobile device to provide out of band communications notifying a customer of a financial transaction request that infringes one or more claims of the '368 patent, including one or more of claims 1-29, literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Defendant put the inventions claimed by the '368 Patent into service (i.e., used them); but for Defendant's actions, the claimed-inventions embodiments involving Defendant's products and services would never have been put into service. Defendant's acts complained of herein caused those claimed-invention embodiments as a whole to perform, and Defendant's procurement of monetary and commercial benefit from it.
- 9. Support for the allegations of infringement may be found in Exhibit B. These allegations of infringement are preliminary and are therefore subject to change.
- 10. Hotels has and continues to induce infringement. Hotels has actively encouraged or instructed others (e.g., its customers and/or the customers of its related companies), and continues to do so, on how to use its products and services (e.g., utilizing a mobile device to provide out of band communications notifying a customer of a financial transaction request) such as to cause infringement of one or more of claims 1–29 of the '368 patent, literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Moreover, Hotels has known or should have known of the '368 patent and the technology underlying it from at least the date of issuance of the patent.
- 11. Hotels has and continues to contributorily infringe. Hotels has actively encouraged or instructed others (e.g., its customers and/or the customers of its related companies), and continues to do so, on how to use its products and services (e.g. utilizing a mobile device to provide out of band communications notifying a customer of a financial transaction request) and related services such as to cause infringement of one or more of claims 1–29 of the '368 patent, literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Moreover, Hotels has known or should have known of the '368 patent and the technology underlying it from at least the date of issuance of the patent.

12. Hotels has caused and will continue to cause Wallet damage by direct and indirect infringement of (including inducing infringement of) the claims of the '368 patent.

IV. JURY DEMAND

Wallet hereby requests a trial by jury on issues so triable by right.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Wallet prays for relief as follows:

- a. enter judgment that Defendant has infringed the claims of the '368 patent;
- b. award Wallet damages in an amount sufficient to compensate it for Defendant's infringement of the '368 patent in an amount no less than a reasonable royalty or lost profits, together with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest and costs under 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- award Wallet an accounting for acts of infringement not presented at trial and an award by the Court of additional damage for any such acts of infringement;
- d. declare this case to be "exceptional" under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and award Wallet its attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs incurred in this action;
- e. declare Defendant's infringement to be willful and treble the damages, including attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs incurred in this action and an increase in the damage award pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- f. a decree addressing future infringement that either (i) awards a permanent injunction enjoining Defendant and its agents, servants, employees, affiliates, divisions, and subsidiaries, and those in association with Defendant from infringing the claims of the Patents-in-Suit, or (ii) awards damages for future infringement in lieu of an injunction in an amount consistent with the fact that for future infringement the Defendant will be an adjudicated infringer of a valid patent, and trebles that amount in view of the fact that the future infringement will be willful as a matter of law; and

g. award Wallet such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
