DEFAULT JUDGMENT ORDER

This action having been commenced by Plaintiff Yiwu Baimei Electronic Commerce Co., Ltd. ("Plaintiff" or "Baimei") against the defendants identified on the Second Amended Schedule A as Nos. 217, 220, and 291, and using the Defendant Domain Names and Online Marketplace Accounts identified on the Schedule A (collectively, the "Defendant Internet Stores"), and Baimei having moved for entry of Default and Default Judgment against the defendants identified on the Second Amended Schedule A attached hereto which have not yet been dismissed from this case (collectively, "Defaulting Defendants");

This Court having entered a preliminary injunction; Plaintiff having properly completed service of process on Defaulting Defendants, the combination of providing notice via electronic publication and e-mail, along with any notice that Defaulting Defendants received from domain name registrars and payment processors, being notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defaulting Defendants of the pendency of the action and affording them the opportunity to answer and present their objections; and none of the Defaulting Defendants having answered or appeared in any way, and the time for answering having expired, so that the allegations of the Complaint are uncontroverted and are deemed admitted;

This Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defaulting Defendants because Defaulting Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that Defaulting Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and have sold products using infringing and counterfeit versions of Plaintiff’s federally registered trademark (the “the Baimei Trademarks”) and federally registered copyright (the “Longtail Cat Image”) to residents of Illinois.

In this case, Plaintiff has presented screenshot evidence [Doc. 9] that each Defendant e-commerce store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products using counterfeit versions of the Baimei Trademark and copyright image, which includes screenshot evidence confirming that each Defendant e-commerce store does stand ready, willing and able to ship its counterfeit goods to customers in Illinois bearing infringing and/or counterfeit versions of the Baimei Trademark and copyright.

This Court further finds that Defaulting Defendants are liable for willful federal trademark infringement and counterfeiting (15 U.S.C. § 1114), false designation of origin (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)), violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act (815 ILCS § 510 et seq.), and copyright infringement (17 U.S.C. § 101 et. seq.).

Accordingly, this Court orders that Plaintiff’s Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment is GRANTED as follows, that Defaulting Defendants are deemed in default, and that this Default Judgment is entered against Defaulting Defendants.

This Court further orders that:

1. Defaulting Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be permanently enjoined and restrained from:

- a. using the Baimei Trademark or any reproductions, counterfeit copies, or colorable imitations in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine Baimei product or not authorized by Baimei to be sold in connection with the Baimei Trademark;
- b. using the Baimei Copyright or any substantially similar image in any manner in connection with the marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not authorized by Baimei;
- c. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine Baimei product or any other product produced by Baimei, that is not Baimei's or not produced under the authorization, control, or supervision of Baimei and approved by Baimei for sale under the Baimei Trademark and utilizing the Baimei Copyright; and committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defaulting Defendants' products are those sold under the authorization, control, or supervision of Baimei, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with Baimei; and
- d. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Baimei, nor authorized by Baimei to be sold or offered for sale, and which bear any of Baimei's trademarks, including the Baimei Trademark, or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations.

2. Defaulting Defendants and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defaulting Defendants, or in connection with any of the Defaulting Defendants' Online Marketplaces, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms including but not limited to Lianlian, Paypal, Payoneer, Stripe and Walmart (collectively, the "Third Party Providers"), shall within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order cease:
 - a. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning the Online Marketplace Accounts, or any other online marketplace account that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defaulting Defendants could continue to sell counterfeit and infringing goods using the Baimei Trademark and Copyright; and
 - b. operating and/or hosting websites that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product bearing the Baimei Trademark or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations thereof that is not a genuine Baimei product or not authorized by Baimei to be sold in connection with the Baimei Trademark;
 - c. operating and/or hosting websites that are involved with the displaying, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product utilizing the Baimei Copyright or any reproductions, whether identical or substantially similar to the Baimei Copyright, and not authorized by Baimei to be used.
3. Upon Baimei's request, those with notice of this Order, including the Third Party Providers as defined in Paragraph 3, shall within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defaulting Defendants in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods using the Baimei Trademark and Copyright.

4. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(c)(2), Baimei is awarded statutory damages from each of the Defaulting Defendants in the amount of two million dollars ($2,000,000) for willful use of counterfeit Baimei Trademarks and one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) for willful infringement pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c) on products sold through at least the Defendant Internet Stores. This award shall apply to each distinct Defaulting Defendant only once, even if they are listed under multiple different aliases in the Complaint and Schedule A.
5. Any Third Party Providers holding funds for Defaulting Defendants, including but not limited to Lianlian, Paypal, Payoneer, Stripe and Walmart shall, within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order, permanently restrain and enjoin any accounts connected to Defaulting Defendants or the Defendant Internet Stores from transferring or disposing of any funds (up to the statutory damages awarded in Paragraph 4 above) or other of Defaulting Defendants' assets.
6. All monies (up to the amount of the statutory damages awarded in Paragraph 5 above) currently restrained in Defaulting Defendants' financial accounts, including monies held by Third Party Providers including but not limited to Lianlian, Paypal, Payoneer, Stripe and Walmart are hereby released to Baimei as partial payment of the above-identified damages, and Third Party Providers, including but not limited to Lianlian, PayPal, Payoneer, Stripe, Walmart, are ordered to release to Baimei the amounts from Defaulting Defendants' financial accounts within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of this Order.

7. Until Baimei has recovered full payment of monies owed to it by any Defaulting Defendant, Baimei shall have the ongoing authority to commence supplemental proceedings under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69.
8. In the event that Baimei identifies any additional online marketplace accounts or financial accounts owned by Defaulting Defendants, Baimei may send notice of any supplemental proceeding, including a citation to discover assets, to Defaulting Defendants by e-mail at the e-mail addresses for Defendants identified in the Second Amended Schedule A and any e-mail addresses provided for Defaulting Defendants by third parties.
9. The Court hereby orders that the Clerk of Court shall release the cash bond held by the Registry of the Court for the Plaintiff in the amount of ten thousand and 0/100 ($10,000.00) U.S. Dollars, along with the interest payable on the principal amount, to attorney Lydia Pittaway, Esq., PITTAWAY LAW PLLC.

This is a default judgment.
