Case No.:

1:25-cv-6850-TWT

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF’S EX PARTE MOTION FOR ENTRY OF A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER, INCLUDING A TEMPORARY
INJUNCTION, A TEMPORARY ASSET RESTRAINT, AND EXPEDITED DISCOVERY

THIS CAUSE has come before the Court on Plaintiff Yiwu Baimei Electronic Commerce Co., Ltd.’s Ex Parte Motion for Entry of a Temporary Restraining Order, Including a Temporary Injunction, a Temporary Asset Restraint, and Expedited Discovery (the “Motion”) pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 17 U.S.C. § 502. As discussed below, Plaintiff has satisfied the requirements for the issuance of an ex parte temporary restraining order and the additional relief requested.

I. APPLICABLE LEGAL STANDARDS

A court will issue a temporary restraining order where the requesting party demonstrates the following four factors: (1) it has a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) the moving party will suffer irreparable injury if the order is not granted; (3) that the threatened injury to the plaintiff outweighs the harm the relief would inflict on the non-movant; and (4) entry of the order would serve the public interest. Schiavo ex. rel Schindler v. Schiavo, 403 F.3d 1223, 1225-26 (11th Cir. 2005) (per curiam); Mud Pie, LLC v. Deck the Halls, Y'all, LLC, No. 1:17-CV-2789-SCJ, 2017 WL 8942387, at *3 (N.D. Ga. Sept. 27, 2017) (granting preliminary injunction in copyright infringement case).

Courts may issue a temporary restraining order without notice to the adverse party where the facts in an affidavit demonstrate the moving party will suffer immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage before the adverse party can be heard in opposition, and the movant's attorney certifies in writing the reasons why notice should not be required. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b)(1). Where a defendant's identity is known and notice can be feasibly given, the court may still grant an ex parte seizure order if providing notice to the defendant would render fruitless the further prosecution of the action. AT&T Broadband v. Tech Communications, Inc., 381 F.3d 1309, 1319 (11th Cir. 2004). Requests for equitable relief invoke the court's inherent equitable powers to order preliminary injunctive relief, including an asset freeze, in order to assure the availability of permanent relief. Levi Strauss & Co. v. Sunrise Intern. Trading Inc., 51 F.3d 982, 987 (11th Cir. 1995). Such asset freezes are particularly appropriate against sellers of unauthorized goods who are likely to conceal their ill-gotten profits if their assets are not seized. Reebok Intern., Ltd. v. Marnatech Enterprises, Inc., 970 F.2d 552, 559 (9th Cir. 1992).

II. FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION OF LAW

This Court, having reviewed Plaintiff’s Motion for TRO and supporting declarations and evidence, makes the following findings of facts and conclusions of law:

A. Plaintiff’s Copyrights

1. Plaintiff owns eight (8) valid and subsisting federal copyright registrations (the “Hollow Halloween Works”), duly registered with the United States Copyright Office, including:

B. Defendants’ Advertising and Sale of Infringing Goods

2. Each Defendant is believed to be a non-U.S. entity, association, or individual, located in China or elsewhere in Asia, each of whom sells, offers for sale, distributes, and/or advertises goods through e-commerce stores operating under seller aliases (the “Seller Aliases”) on various e-commerce marketplaces and payment processors, such as Amazon.com, Inc. (“Amazon”), LianLian Global, LL Pay U.S., LLC, and Lianlian Yintong Electronic Payment Co. Ltd. (“LianLian”), Payoneer Global Inc. (“Payoneer”), PayPal, Inc. (“PayPal”), Stripe Inc. (“Stripe”), Airwallex US LLC (“Airwallex”) (each a “Marketplace” and collectively the “Marketplaces”).

3. Each Defendant uses in commerce a reproduction or copy of the Hollow Halloween Works on or in connection with the sale, offer for sale, distribution, or advertising of goods on their respective Seller Aliases on the Marketplaces (“Unauthorized Products”).

4. Each Defendant has offered Unauthorized Products for sale throughout the United States. Each Defendant is willing to engage in commercial transactions with residents of the United States and ship Unauthorized Products to the United States.

5. Each Defendant also accepts payment for its goods in U.S. dollars through, for example, a variety of payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, the Marketplaces themselves, and other companies that engage in the processing or transfer of money of or on behalf of Defendants by virtue of their operation of the Seller Aliases on any of the Marketplaces (collectively referred to hereafter as, “Financial Institutions”).

6. Defendants are subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to Rule 4(k)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and exercising jurisdiction over Defendants is consistent with the United States Constitution and its laws. Based on the facts set forth above, it is reasonable for Defendants to expect that they may be sued in the United States. U.S. S.E.C. v. Carrillo, 115 F.3d 1540, 1542-47 (11th Cir. 1997) (holding court had personal jurisdiction over foreign corporation where defendant placed ads for securities in two airlines’ in-flight magazines, mailed offering materials directly to U.S. investors, and maintained U.S. bank accounts to receive payment from investors.); Louis Vuitton Malletier, S.A. v. Mosseri, 736 F.3d 1339, 1355-58 (11th Cir. 2013) (affirming jurisdiction over non-resident who sold counterfeit products through fully-interactive website).

7. Plaintiff has never authorized any of the Defendants to use the Hollow Halloween Works on or in connection with the sale, offer for sale, distribution, or advertising of any goods in the United States.

8. Plaintiff has never authorized Defendants to reproduce, import or distribute copies of any of the Hollow Halloween Works in the United States.

9. Plaintiff has established that the Unauthorized Products offered for sale by Defendants are not genuine and that each Defendant is using one or more of the Hollow Halloween Works or unauthorized copies of the Hollow Halloween Works in connection with the sale, offer for sale, distribution, or advertising of Unauthorized Products.

10. Plaintiff has established that it is substantially likely to succeed on the merits of its copyright infringement claims:

- a. Plaintiff owns valid copyright registrations for the Hollow Halloween Works;
- b. Defendants are offering for sale and selling reproductions of one or more of the Hollow Halloween Works, or works that are derived from one of the Hollow Halloween Works;
- c. Plaintiff has not authorized Defendants to reproduce, distribute, publicly display or create derivative works of any of the Hollow Halloween Works; and

d. The Unauthorized Products are substantially similar to one or more of the Hollow Halloween Works.

11. The widespread and unauthorized use of the Hollow Halloween Works in the marketing, offering for sale, and sale of infringing goods threatens the extensive goodwill associated with Plaintiff's business and the Hollow Halloween Works, and will continue to cannibalize the sale of Plaintiff's genuine goods. There is a significant threat that Plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm without an injunction. Isaac Hayes Enters., LLC v. Trump, 2024 WL 4148758, at *3 (N.D. Ga. Sept. 11, 2024).

12. It is likely that Plaintiff will suffer immediate and irreparable loss, damage, or injury unless Plaintiff's request for ex parte relief is granted:

- a. It is likely that Defendants will continue to sell infringing goods through the Seller Aliases on the Marketplaces in the absence of the requested TRO;
- b. As a result, it is likely that consumers will continue to be misled, confused, and disappointed by the quality of these goods, thereby significantly and irreparably damaging Plaintiff's valuable goodwill;
and

c. Plaintiff will continue to suffer lost sales of genuine goods as the result of the lower-cost Unauthorized Products offered for sale by Defendants.

13. The balance of harms favors Plaintiff. If the TRO is denied, Plaintiff will continue to suffer the above-mentioned irreparable harm to its reputation and the goodwill associated with the Hollow Halloween Works. On the other hand, enjoining Defendants from selling infringing goods poses little to no risk of damaging the goodwill, if any, associated with the Defendants. Any harm Defendants may suffer is purely monetary and is therefore compensable, unlike the harm that Plaintiff will continue to suffer.

14. Plaintiff has further demonstrated that this TRO should be granted ex parte. If Plaintiff provides Defendants notice of its application for a TRO, Defendants are likely to delete their existing Seller Aliases on the Marketplaces, transfer any ill-gotten gains away from the Marketplaces, hide their identities, cover up evidence of their infringing activities, and shield their ill-gotten assets in a concerted effort to avoid liability and prevent Plaintiff from achieving a meaningful recovery, including financial compensation and permanent injunctive relief. Foreign parties that sell Unauthorized Products online often “disappear” when notified that they are being pursued.

15. Granting Plaintiff an ex parte TRO is also in the public's interest. It will prevent consumer confusion in the marketplace and remove from the stream of commerce Unauthorized Products of unknown and likely inferior quality and composition, thereby preventing consumer harm, confusion, mistake, and deception.

16. In its Complaint, Plaintiff has requested a permanent injunction and recovery of Defendants' ill-gotten profits from their sale of Unauthorized Products pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504.

17. By requesting equitable relief, Plaintiff has invoked this Court's inherent equitable powers to order preliminary relief, including an asset freeze, in order to assure the availability of permanent relief. Levi Strauss & Co. v. Sunrise Intern. Trading Inc., 51 F.3d 982, 987 (11th Cir. 1995) (citing Fed. Trade Comm'n v. U.S. Oil & Gas Corp., 748 F.2d 1431, 1433–34 (11th Cir. 1984)).

18. Defendants are likely to destroy evidence of their infringing activities, such as evidence regarding the Defendant Internet Stores and payment processing histories on the Marketplaces and other Financial Institutions, as well as hide and/or transfer any ill-gotten proceeds from the sale of Infringing Products, unless those assets are frozen or otherwise restrained.

In light of the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Plaintiff's Motion for Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order, Including a

Temporary Injunction, a Temporary Asset Restraint, and Expedited Discovery is GRANTED as follows:

- 1) Each Defendant (as reflected on the attached Exhibit A), its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order is hereby ordered to temporarily:
 - a) Cease and refrain from manufacturing, advertising, offering for sale, selling, distributing, destroying, selling off, transferring, or otherwise disposing of any Infringing Products;
 - b) Cease and refrain from manufacturing, advertising, offering to sell, selling, reproducing, or distributing any goods utilizing the Hollow Halloween Works, or any substantially similar goods, other than genuine products manufactured or distributed by Plaintiff or its authorized manufacturers and distributors;
 - c) Cease and refrain from destroying, selling off, transferring, or otherwise disposing of any documents, electronically stored information, or financial records or assets of any kind relating to the manufacture, importation, sale, offer for sale, distribution, or transfer of any Infringing Products;

- d) Cease and refrain from using the Hollow Halloween Works on or in connection with any Defendant Internet Store that any Defendant may own, operate, or control on any Marketplace;
 - e) Cease and refrain from any and all use of the Hollow Halloween Works as metatags, on any webpage (including the title of any web page), in any advertising links to other websites, from search engines' databases or cache memory, or any other form of use of such terms that are visible to a computer user or serves to direct computer searches to Defendant Internet Stores registered, owned or operated by any Defendant on any Marketplace; and
 - f) Cease and refrain from altering, disabling, closing, or transferring ownership of any Defendant Internet Store on any Marketplace during the pendency of this Action, or until further Order of the Court.
- 2) For the duration of this suit, each Defendant must preserve all documents and electronically stored information arising from or related to its sale, offer for sale, distribution, and advertising of Infringing Products through its Defendant Internet Stores located on the Marketplaces.

- 3) All Financial Institutions that receive actual notice of this Order shall immediately attach and freeze all funds in any accounts owned, controlled, utilized by, or associated with Defendants and otherwise prohibit the transfer of any funds out of any such accounts and divert any frozen funds and any additional funds that may be transferred into the accounts into a holding account at the Marketplace or the respective Financial Institution for the trust of the Court, with such frozen funds and/or holding accounts being held, maintained, and/or located exclusively within the United States.
- 4) Within seven (7) days of receiving actual notice of this Order, all Financial Institutions shall provide a report to Plaintiff for each Defendant having any account with any Financial Institution, the report to include, at a minimum, the following information:
 - a) Legal name and email address of each Defendant;
 - b) Current account balances and amount of funds attached, frozen, and being held in trust pursuant to this Order;
 - c) Identity of all financial accounts linked to or associated with each Defendant's account associated with the Defendant Internet Stores on the Marketplaces, or from or to which funds have been transferred from the attached accounts, including the name of the Financial Institution, account numbers, routing numbers, and other relevant data to allow Plaintiff to seek further application of this Order.

- 5) No funds restrained by this Order shall be transferred or surrendered by any Financial Institution or Marketplace for any purpose (other than pursuant to a chargeback made pursuant to their security interest in the funds) without the express authorization of the Court.
- 6) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, each Marketplace on which a Defendant maintains a Defendant Internet Store or account is ordered to immediately:
 - a) Provide to Plaintiff the name and email address of each Defendant having an account or store on the Marketplace;
 - b) Freeze all funds held or received by the Marketplace for any Defendant's benefit; and
 - c) Disable the infringing listings on each of the Defendant's Defendant Internet Stores on the Marketplaces and any accounts associated with each Defendant.
- 7) Plaintiff is authorized to issue expedited written discovery, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 33, 34 and 36, related to:

- a) a) the identities and locations of Defendants, their officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant, including all known contact information, including any and all associated e-mail addresses; and
 - b) the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant Internet Stores and Defendants' financial accounts, as well as providing a full accounting of Defendants' sales and listing history related to their respective Defendant Internet Stores.
- 8) Plaintiff is authorized to issue any such expedited discovery requests by electronic means, including by electronic email. Defendants shall respond to any such discovery requests within three (3) business days of being served by electronic email.
 - 9) Plaintiff may notify the Marketplaces and Financial Institutions of this Order by electronic means, including by electronic mail.
 - 10) Pursuant to this Court's discretion and the extraordinary circumstances presented, including clear and convincing evidence of infringing activities, Plaintiff shall not presently be required to post a bond or other security, as the risk of legitimate harm to Defendants appears minimal. BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. v. MCIMetro Access Transmission Servs., LLC, 425 F.3d 964, 971 (11th Cir. 2005). However, any Defendant may appear and immediately challenge this portion of the Order by providing the Court with a reasonable estimation of its potential lost sales, along with supporting documentation sufficient to allow the Court to decide what an appropriate amount of surety would be. Plaintiff will then have one (1) week in which to file a response.

11) This Order shall remain in effect for fourteen (14) days from the date of issuance unless the hearing on Plaintiff's motion for an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue cannot be heard within such time, in which case the Order shall remain in effect until the date of the hearing or until such further date as set by the Court or stipulated to by the parties.

12) This Order shall apply to Defendants, their associated Defendant Internet Stores on the Marketplaces, and any other websites, domain names, seller identification names, e-commerce stores, or Financial Institution accounts which are being used by Defendants for the purpose of advertising, offering for sale, and selling any Infringing Products at issue in this action and/or unfairly competing with Plaintiff.

13) Any Defendant or Financial Institution account holder may petition the Court to modify the asset restraint set out in this Order.

14) A hearing is set before this Court in the United States Courthouse located at 75 Ted Turner Drive SW, Atlanta, Georgia 30303, Courtroom 2108, on January 21, 2026 at 11:30 AM, at which time Defendants and/or any other affected persons may challenge the appropriateness of this Order and move to dissolve the same, and at which time the Court will hear argument on Plaintiff's requested preliminary injunction. Defendants shall appear and show cause why said preliminary injunction should not issue.

15) SERVICE BY ALTERNATE MEANS: After Plaintiff's counsel has received confirmation that the Financial Institutions have restrained Defendants' funds as directed herein, Plaintiff shall serve copies of the Complaint, Motion for TRO, and this Order on each Defendant by electronic mail using email addresses provided by the Marketplaces, Financial Institutions, or Defendants themselves or by other electronic means reasonably calculated to provide notice to all Defendants.

- 16) Any response or opposition to Plaintiff's request for a preliminary injunction must be served on Plaintiff's counsel by January 16, 2026 and filed with the Court, along with Proof of Service. Plaintiff shall file any reply memorandum prior to the hearing set for January 21, 2026. The above dates may be revised upon stipulation by all parties and approval of this Court. Defendants are on notice that failure to appear at the hearing may result in the imposition of a preliminary injunction against them pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), and the Court's inherent authority.

This Temporary Restraining Order expires within fourteen (14) days from the date of issuance unless (1) extended by the Court for good cause shown, or (2) the hearing on Plaintiff's motion for an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue cannot be heard within such time, in which case the Order shall remain in effect until the date of the hearing.

SO ORDERED this 4th day of December, 2025.
