Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Attorney Rating:

AV – very high to preeminent legal ability; very high ethical standards

Media recognition:

- “Bopp is a noted conservative voice whose practice areas include campaign finance and election law and constitutional law litigation, primarily regarding the First Amendment. He has been involved with more than a dozen cases that have been heard by the U.S. Supreme Court, including the landmark 2010 Citizens United v. FEC ruling, which held that companies and unions could contribute to political committees during active campaigns. As general counsel for the National Right to Life Committee, Bopp was responsible for developing and implementing the legal strategy that eventually led to the overturning of Roe v. Wade in 2022.” Indiana Lawyer, May 29, 2026.
- “Known to presidents vice presidents and senators, James Bopp Jr. may be one of the most important conservative voices you have never heard of. From a quiet office in Terre Haute, Indiana, population 60,000, the 74-year-old lawyer has had a hand in major conservative cases for years, including Bush v. Gore, Citizens United and the decades-long effort to overturn Roe v. Wade.” PBS News, June 16, 2022.
- “Perhaps the most prolific anti-abortion litigator of his generation, responsible for encouraging states to pass laws chipping away at Roe v. Wade and then defending them in court.” The New York Times, May 12, 2013.
- “Credited as being the intellectual architect of the arguments that persuaded the Supreme Court in Citizens United.” The New York Times, May 12, 2013.
- “He is a litigation machine, methodically mowing down restrictions on campaign financing and speech.” His strengths: “legal results,” renowned for his or her ability to get results for clients, and for “thought leadership,” known for cutting-edge commentary about legal issues. “100 Most Influential Lawyers in America,” The National Law Journal, April 8, 2013.
- “Bopp is a Republican stalwart (he sees the Democratic Party as socialist), and he has done yeoman’s work for the party—among other accomplishments, he developed the legal rationale by which the Supreme Court decided Bush v. Gore.” The Atlantic, October 2012.

- “He developed the legal strategy that has systematically undermined campaign finance reform legislation.” National Journal Daily, June 2, 2011.
- The lawyer leading the attack on these states’ disclosure laws is James Bopp, a leader of the Christian Right with an uncanny ability to spot weaknesses in campaign finance statutes and obliterate them via the First Amendment. Mother Jones, April 28, 2010.
- James Bopp: master of constitutional sorcery, The Yale Herald, January 29, 2010.
- “Bopp, the longtime counsel to the anti-abortion group National Right to Life, has now almost singlehandedly obliterated many of the nation’s relatively modest restrictions on corporate election spending, including the landmark McCain-Feingold campaign finance reform legislation.” Mother Jones, January 21, 2010.
- “Bopp has quietly become one of the most influential figures in the world of campaign finance, having played a central role in the slow but steady dismantling of the current election restrictions.” ABC News, January 12, 2010.
- “Bopp may be the nation's most experienced lawyer in challenging campaign finance laws.” NPR October 4, 2008.
- “The most prominent lawyer in the country in campaign finance and election law.” ABA Journal, November 2006.
- “And with the same fervor and legal acumen he once used to energize the anti-abortion cause, he has compiled an impressive string of legal victories in courts across the nation.” The New York Times, March 29, 2001.
- “The pre-eminent election law attorney for conservative groups. He has scored a string of victories challenging restrictions on political activity on First Amendment grounds.” Roll Call, January 15, 2001.
- “The nation's leading litigator against campaign restrictions.” The Washington Post, September 14, 1999.
