C. WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Keever v. Scott County, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 23004113.02 (March 2026)(“Claimant shall take nothing” decision obtained for client employer where it was determined claimant failed to prove her alleged ankle injury arose out of and in the course of her employment)

Wilson v. Arconic, Inc. and Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. America, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File Nos. 19003589.03 and 23700914.01 (March 2025)(decision obtained for clients employer and insurance carrier: 1) finding Claimant's IME physician's opinions not credible as they were not in compliance with the AMA Guides; 2) denying any PPD benefits for Claimant's accepted right carpal tunnel syndrome; 3) denying PPD benefits beyond those previously voluntarily paid for Claimant's accepted right knee and accepted right shoulder injuries; 4) barring any benefits for Claimant's second alleged injury date based on Defendants' statute of limitations defense; 5) finding some of Claimant's IME physician's fee not reasonable and thus not reimbursable under Iowa Code section 85.39; and 6) awarding Claimant minimal costs) Hipes v. Arconic, Inc. and Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. America, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 20008264.02 (September 2024)(decision obtained for clients employer and insurance carrier denying: 1) PPD benefits beyond those previously voluntarily paid based on Claimant's IME physician's impairment rating being found not in compliance with the AMA Guides and neither credible nor persuasive; 2) temporary disability benefits beyond those previously voluntarily paid based on clients' average weekly wage and workers' compensation rate calculation being found reasonable; and 3) additional medical expenses for unauthorized, non-emergency care and treatment)(affirmed by Commissioner on intra-agency appeal)

Tremaine v. Arconic Corp. and AIU Insurance Co., Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 21012392.01 (May 2024)("claimant shall take nothing further" decision obtained for clients employer and workers' compensation insurance carrier where it was found "that the claimant's left hip replacement surgery did not arise out of and in the course of his employment, nor was it a cause of temporary disability, nor was it a cause of permanent disability", Claimant's request for IME reimbursement was rejected given "the injury is not compensable" and Claimant's request for costs was likewise declined)(affirmed by Commissioner on intra-agency appeal)

Caldwell v. Arconic, Inc. and Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. America, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 1661494.01 (May 2024) ("Claimant shall take nothing" decision obtained for clients employer and workers' compensation insurance carrier concluding Claimant failed to meet his burden of proving that he was entitled to any additional IME reimbursement and declining to award Claimant any costs)

Mulvany v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 21009145.01 (February 2023)(decision obtained for client-employer finding claimant failed to prove his mental health and right knee conditions arose out of and in the course of employment and the impairment rating of client-employer's plant occupational health physician more "convincing and credible" than the impairment rating of claimant's IME physician and awarding claimant a modest 25% industrial disability for the accepted right shoulder and right wrist injuries)

Gittings v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 21007468.01 (August 2022)("Claimant shall take nothing" decision obtained for client employer where it was determined "claimant has not met his burden to prove that his bilateral carpal tunnel syndrome arose out of and in the course of his employment”)

Clark v. Arconic, Inc. and Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. America, Iowa Workers’ Compensation Commission, File No. 5061553.01 (June 2022)(favorable intra-agency Appeal Decision obtained for clients employer and insurance carrier where Commissioner modified and reversed the Arbitration Decision finding: 1) as a matter of first impression and reconciling a conflict between Iowa Code section 85.34(2)(x) and the AMA Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, Fifth Edition, the extent of functional loss or impairment under the AMA Guides from a work-related mental disorder can be determined by the agency despite Iowa Code section 85.34(2)(x) stating “agency expertise shall not be utilized in determining loss or percentage of impairment...when determining functional disability”; 2) clients’ IME expert more credible than claimant’s IME expert and therefore reducing claimant’s functional impairment from her work-related PTSD from 100% to 30%; 3) PPD benefits did not commence until well over two years after the work injury thus significantly reducing clients’ exposure for PPD interest; and 4) claimant’s recoverable costs related to claimant’s IME expert were limited to claimant’s IME expert’s fees incurred for drafting her report)

Elliott v. Arconic, Inc. and Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. America, Iowa Workers’ Compensation Commission, File No. 5064006.01 (March 2022)(Claimant “shall take nothing” decision obtained for clients employer and workers’ compensation insurance carrier where it was determined claimant “failed to meet his burden of proof on entitlement to temporary disability or healing period benefits and permanent partial disability benefits” and “failed to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the medical expenses listed in Claimant’s Exhibit 1 are related to [Claimant’s] temporary work injury and not his pre-existing lumbar spondylosis or arthritis, L3-L4 disc herniation, or lower extremity radiculopathy”)

Davis v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers’ Compensation Commission, File No. 20700989.01 (February 2022)(“Claimant shall taking nothing” decision obtained for client employer where it was determined claimant “failed to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that his bilateral carpal tunnel conditions arose out of and in the course of his employment”)(affirmed by Commissioner on intra-agency appeal)

Berzins v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers’ Compensation Commission, File No. 20700941.01 (January 2022)(decision obtained for client employer denying claimant any weekly benefits where it was determined claimant failed to prove: 1) any alleged mental injury, including depression, was causally related to the accepted work injury; 2) his complex regional pain syndrome was permanent; and 3) the accepted work injury caused any permanent impairment) Teel v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 5067847 (July 2021)(decision obtained for client employer concluding: 1) claimant's bilateral cubital tunnel syndrome did not arise out of and was not caused by claimant's employment; 2) claimant's bilateral carpal tunnel syndrome did not cause any permanent disability; and 3) claimant is not entitled to penalty benefits)

Clopton v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 20700048.01 (April 2021)("Claimant takes nothing" decision obtained for client employer denying claimant any additional benefits where it was determined claimant failed to prove his left wrist condition and resulting surgery were causally related to or materially aggravated by the stipulated July 12, 2018 work injury and further determined that claimant failed to prove his alleged left carpal tunnel syndrome was causally related to the stipulated July 12, 2018 work injury)

Trujillo v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 19700625.01 (March 2021)(decision obtained for client employer denying claimant any additional benefits where it was determined claimant failed to prove her alleged neck injury arose out of and in the course of her employment, claimant was not entitled to any additional PPD benefits for her scheduled member right shoulder injury rejecting the opinion of claimant's IME physician, claimant was not entitled to any additional mileage and claimant was not entitled to any costs)(affirmed by Commissioner on intra-agency appeal and affirmed by District Court on judicial review)

Hernandez v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 5067924 (May 2020)("Claimant shall take nothing" decision obtained for client employer where it was determined claimant failed to prove his alleged right shoulder injury arose out of and in the course of his employment)(affirmed by Commissioner on intra-agency appeal)

Ardapple v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 5049457 (March 2020)("claimant shall take nothing" review-reopening decision obtained for client employer where it was determined claimant failed to prove he: 1) has cubital tunnel syndrome related to his work at client employer; 2) sustained a permanent impairment regarding his bilateral carpal tunnel syndrome previously found compensable; 3) sustained a physical change in condition as required to receive any benefits on review-reopening; 4) is entitled to IME reimbursement under Iowa Code section 85.39; 5) is due reimbursement for mileage or lost wages for attending medical appointments; and 6) is entitled to any costs)

Trainor v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 5064939 (January 2020)("Claimant shall take nothing" decision obtained for client employer where it was determined claimant failed to prove that his alleged left shoulder injury, the treatment for his left shoulder and any resulting disability were causally related to, arose out of or were materially aggravated or accelerated by the work incident)

White v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 5058673 (November 2019)(While claimant was awarded industrial disability for accepted right shoulder, right elbow and right wrist injuries, obtained decision for client employer where it was determined: 1) claimant failed to prove her left shoulder condition was either causally related to or substantially aggravated by the alleged work injury or a result of a work-related cumulative trauma; 2) claimant failed to establish entitlement to number of exemptions sought; 3) client employer was entitled to substantial credit for overpaid temporary disability benefits to be applied toward industrial disability award; and 4) claimant was not entitled to her vocational expert's costs as the vocational expert's opinions were clearly overstated and not helpful) Marnier v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 5052510 (July 2019)(While claimant was awarded substantial industrial disability on review-reopening, obtained decision for client employer where it was determined: 1) claimant failed to prove any of his alleged mental symptoms were causally related to the previously accepted work injury; 2) claimant failed to prove he is permanently, totally disabled; 3) claimant was not entitled to the requested penalty benefits as employer "had a reasonable basis for the denial of benefits" and "the claim was fairly debatable"; and 4) claimant was entitled to only a fraction of his requested costs)

Sanchez v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File Nos. 5065197 and 5065198 (January 2019)("Claimant takes nothing" decision obtained for client employer where it was determined claimant failed to prove both her left shoulder and left arm injuries, with separate injury dates, arose out of and in the course of her employment)

Moenck v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 5057569 (November 2018)(favorable intra-agency Appeal Decision obtained for client employer where Commissioner modified and reversed the Arbitration Decision by finding the permanent impairment rating of the treating orthopedic physician more persuasive than the permanent impairment rating of claimant's IME physician and reducing the permanency award for claimant's scheduled member right arm from 30% to 15%, reducing the amount of penalty benefits awarded and finding claimant is not entitled to any costs for claimant's IME)

Farrell v. John Deere Davenport Works, Iowa Workers' Compensation Commission, File No. 5063179 (July 2018)("Claimant shall take nothing" decision obtained for client employer where it was determined claimant failed to prove his right arm injury arose out of and in the course of his employment)
